

Triangle Blind Golfers Association

Partner Inquiry Form

Thank you for your interest in partnering with the Triangle Blind Golfers Association (TGBA).

We welcome conversations with organizations that share our commitment to accessibility, inclusion, and opportunity for blind and visually impaired individuals. Partnerships play an important role in expanding access to golf, strengthening community connections, and supporting meaningful, inclusive experiences both on and off the course.

Whether you represent a nonprofit, community organization, golf course, business, or service provider, we look forward to learning more about your organization and exploring how we might work together.

Please complete the information below to help us better understand your interest.
