

Triangle Blind Golfers Association

Volunteer Interest Form

Thank you for your interest in volunteering with the Triangle Blind Golfers Association (TGBA).

Volunteers are at the heart of everything we do. By serving as a volunteer guide, you help blind and visually impaired golfers experience the game in a supportive, inclusive, and confidence-building environment. No prior golf experience is required. All volunteers receive training, guidance, and ongoing support.

Whether you are looking to give back, build meaningful connections, or be part of an inclusive community, we are grateful for your interest and look forward to learning more about you.

Please complete the information below so we can better understand your availability and interests.

Additional Information

Please share anything you'd like us to know about your interest in volunteering, your background, or any questions you may have.

What to Expect

Volunteer guides receive training focused on clear communication, safety, encouragement, and on-course support. You will never be expected to teach golf technique. Your role is to support the golfer's experience by offering guidance, verbal cues, and encouragement.

Volunteering schedules are flexible, and we work to respect your time and availability.

Next Steps

Once we receive your completed form, a member of the Triangle Blind Golfers Association team will review your information and follow up with details about training, scheduling, and next steps.

As a volunteer-driven organization, we appreciate your patience and your willingness to support accessible golf.

Once completed, please email your document to mciischool@gmail.com

Thank you for your interest in volunteering with the Triangle Blind Golfers Association and helping make golf accessible to everyone.
