

TRIANGLE BLIND GOLF ASSOCIATION

You Don't Have To See It To Hit It!

A North Carolina 501(c)(3) | Nonprofit Organization

GOLF WITHOUT LIMITS

The Triangle Blind Golf Association (TBGA) provides blind and visually impaired individuals the opportunity to learn, play, and enjoy the game of golf.

More than 650,000 North Carolina residents are blind or have significant vision impairment.

TBGA is committed to creating opportunities for children, youth, and adults across the state to build confidence, independence, social connections, and lifelong friendships through golf.

OUR MISSION

To train blind and visually impaired individuals in the game of golf while promoting independence, confidence, personal growth, social interaction, networking, and lifelong friendships throughout North Carolina.

HOME COURSE

Hillandale Golf Course
1600 Hillandale Road
Durham, North Carolina 27705

WHAT WE OFFER

- Free participation for blind and visually impaired golfers.
- Golf instruction and skill development.
- Weekly training clinics and special golf events at each county's designated home golf course.
- Opportunities for recreation, competition, travel, and fellowship.
- Statewide networking and friendship-building through golf.

TOURNAMENTS & EVENTS

- Annual blind and visually impaired golf tournaments.
- Invitational county-hosted tournaments across North Carolina.
- Statewide travel opportunities for competition and fellowship.
- Special community golf events promoting inclusion and sportsmanship.
- Annual sponsor, supporter, and partner appreciation tournament.

COUNTY PROGRAMS

- TBGA serves blind and visually impaired individuals across North Carolina through county-based programs and partnerships.
- Community support and donations help provide instruction, equipment, travel assistance, training opportunities, tournaments, and other activities that make golf accessible statewide.
- Donations may be designated to support programs and participants within a specific county.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

- Volunteer coaches and guides are essential to the success of TBGA programs.
- Volunteers assist participants with instruction, orientation, and on-course support—helping golfers learn skills, navigate the course, and enjoy a positive experience.
- Individuals, civic groups, businesses, and golf enthusiasts are encouraged to participate.

Contact: President James Davis
Phone: 919-688-7700
Email: tbgagolf47@gmail.com
Website: BlindGolfersAssociation.com

YOU DON'T HAVE TO SEE IT TO HIT IT!